

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

MRS. DAVID LEAKE, Miss Maud Morgan, Miss Caroline Gordon, Mrs. Bruce Bovee and Miss Mabel Walker will receive this afternoon at the Jefferson Hotel in the tea room, which has been attractively decorated in pink and white carnations and jonquils, presenting a spring-like appearance. Interest in the Girls' Club and its work is steadily increasing. Miss Mabel Walker having consented to represent it as sponsor in the contest for the home, and society women have a splendid work before them for these latter days.

Yesterday the afternoon reception was unusually gay, guests being received by Miss Beattie Watkins, Miss Gertrude Cannon, Mrs. John Skifton Williams, Miss Nellie Tompkins, Mrs. Arthur P. Ripley, Miss Mabel Walker, Mrs. Sidney Buford, Miss Della Tompkins, Miss Gabriella Page and Miss Nellie Boykin. Among many who called were Mrs. Fairfax, Mrs. de Saussure, Mrs. David Tennant, Mrs. Randle, Miss Cowardin, Miss Flossie Talbott, Mrs. Randolph Williams, Mrs. George Brewster, Mrs. Derby, Miss Minnie Derby, Miss Boyd, Miss Helen Lathrop, Mrs. Noland, Mrs. Evelyn Gordon, Miss Elizabeth Hotchkiss, Mrs. Waller Morton, Mrs. John Lyons, Mrs. Allen Donnan, Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Kent, Miss Binford, Miss Trigg, Miss Morgan, Miss Butler, Miss Carolyn Martin, Miss Held and Mrs. Mayo.

To discuss "Lewis Rand."

Of universal interest in club circles will be the discussion this afternoon of "Lewis Rand," by Mrs. Thelma Cary, in the Women's Club at 4:30 o'clock, and club women and their friends are looking forward with much pleasure to Mrs. Johnson's estimate of Mary Johnston's widely discussed novel.

Owing to the very inclement weather on last Wednesday, the day originally set for Mrs. Johnson, it was decided to repeat the day-to-day and to postpone the reading of Mrs. L. L. Lewis's history paper until later.

Richmond Chapter.
The marriage of Miss Sadie Stern, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stern, of this city, to Myer Labe Radesky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Radesky, of Baltimore, will be celebrated this evening at 7 o'clock in the Sir Moses Montefiore Synagogue, which will be decorated in palms and ferns. Music will be furnished by Newman's Orchestra, and during the ceremony Mr. Trautman will be played by Miss Ray Blinckoff on the violin.

Ben Miller, of Baltimore, will be best man, and the groomsmen will include John Spector, William Chote, Abe Goldwater, Sam Levy and Joe Meyer. It is expected that the wedding will be a most elaborate affair, and will be attended by a large number of guests.

MISS MURIEL WHITE.

Her Engagement to Count Hermann Scherr-Thoss, of Prussia, Is Announced.

MISS WHITE ENGAGED

She Will Figure in Another International Marriage.

PARIS, March 8.—The engagement was announced to-day of Muriel White, daughter of Henry White, the American ambassador, to Count Hermann Scherr-Thoss, an officer of the Royal Prussian Cuirassiers. Miss White met the count only a few weeks ago, while visiting Mrs. Reynolds Hitt, wife of the secretary of the American embassy at Berlin.

The count is the eldest of four sons of Count and Countess Scherr-Thoss, of Dabrun, Prussian Silesia, and is heir to both the title and the extensive estates which the family owns in Silesia. The count is twenty-nine and Miss White is twenty-five years of age. The marriage will probably take place in May. Count Scherr-Thoss is described as a handsome and dashing officer of sterling qualities.

In spite of the suddenness of the count's wooing, Ambassador and Mrs. White appear to be completely reconciled to the match.

able in Norfolk, stopped for a few hours Monday night in Richmond on her way to Staunton, to be the guest of Mrs. G. G. Gooch.

W. M. Garrett, of Norfolk, has joined Mr. Sever and Mr. Chatham at the Raleigh Hotel, N. Y.

Mrs. H. W. Tyler and Miss Virginia Tyler, of Toano, Va., will arrive in the city Thursday to be the guests of Mrs. Horace Shepperson for a few days.

Miss Bettie Dickinson, of Hollins, Va., is spending the week in Richmond with her sister.

Harry Robinson, of Sheffield, Ala., who has been on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Robinson, at their home on Fairfax Street, in Alexandria, has returned to the South.

Miss Nina Gentry, who has been the guest of Miss Emma Williams, at her home in Norfolk, has returned to Atlanta, Georgia, after a very pleasant trip to Virginia.

Mrs. William Manly and Mrs. Douglas H. Thomas, Jr., of Baltimore, have been enjoying the pleasures of Old Point.

Miss Carlin and Miss Munson, of New York, are guests at 215 East Franklin Street, on their way South.

Misses Bettie Miller and Amy Catlett are spending some time in Baltimore, leaving Staunton last week.

Miss Helen Ross, of Philadelphia, who has been charmingly entertained by Miss Dorothy Kinkaid during the week spent with her in her home in the navy yard, and who greatly enjoyed some time at Old Point during the gayest part of the season there, left yesterday for Philadelphia.

Ex-Governor Taylor, of Tennessee, was in Clifton Forge yesterday.

At Rawlings' Institute, in Charlottesville, a very interesting debate was held recently on woman suffrage.

Miss Ellen Monroe, of Hot Springs, Va., and Miss Katherine Conner, of Grafton, W. Va., holding the affirmative, and Miss Annie Burbank, of Hampton, and Miss Estelle Bass, of Crewe, argued for a negative standpoint and won the contest, which was judged by Miss Gertrude Everts, of Boston, Miss Ida Soyars, of Staunton, Va., and Mayor Haden, of Charlottesville.

A Skating Party.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
The skating party given by Mrs. William Hayes, of New York, at the Warrenton rink last night was a success in every way, and the occasion proved it will not soon be forgotten of those who were present.

The guests gathered at 8:30 o'clock and remained till after midnight, and the entire time was spent in skating. The refreshments, which were served informally through the afternoon, had the tendency to make all present "high rollers" and the occasion one of the merriest ever given in Warrenton. The handsome new skating rink, which was presented to the woman and man presenting the best appearance on the rink while skating, were awarded prizes.

On their return from a bridal tour home in Waynesboro.

North Carolina Legislature Adjourns in Gale of Good Humor.

MANY BILLS ARE TABLED

Very Few Measures of State Importance Passed at This Session.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., March 9.—Final adjournment of the General Assembly took place amid the stir and merry-making usually incident to such occasions at 2 o'clock this afternoon, two days past the constitutional limit for which members can receive pay.

The records show that during the session just 1,319 bills of public and private character and fifty-seven resolutions have been passed. Probably few legislatures, however, have enacted so few bills of general State-wide interest and application. The Senate and House were each in session for the final day about four hours, most of the time being spent in merrymaking, as the law-makers waited for the enrolment of the final list of bills for ratification. Both houses broke the record for tawling bills, sending large numbers to the table in rapid succession, among the number being the House joint resolution passed last night, carrying $10,000 for the statue of Zebulon B. Vance to be placed in Statuary Hall, Washington.

This was tabled by the Senate, after it had passed the House by a rising unanimous vote. The upper branch of the Assembly deemed this all too important and large an appropriation to go through the Legislature at so late a day.

The Senate also tabled the bill that Speaker Graham had gotten through the House depriving a wife of the right of dower in case she persistently lives apart from her husband for five years after he had made provision for her, and a bill for reconciliation and support.

The House passed the bill that Speaker Graham had gotten through the House depriving a wife of the right of dower in case she persistently lives apart from her husband for five years after he had made provision for her, and a bill for reconciliation and support.
